Clearwave  Location: Atlanta

The healthcare space is rapidly becoming more technology centric and patients have new priorities and expectations when interacting with their healthcare providers. As one of the fastest-growing platforms in the digital patient engagement space, Clearwave simplifies the patient and healthcare provider interactions. Our comprehensive solutions improve profitability, productivity and patient access for specialty practices, hospitals and health systems.

IT, Marketing, Finance and Accounting, Operations (3rd and 4th year, graduate level)

Double Helix STEAM School  Location: Athens

Double Helix STEAM School is small private school serving 3rd - 8th graders. It is a school that celebrates the intersection of Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math. We are rooted in standards, but not bogged down by them. We are a school in which “teachable moments” drive instruction. This is a school that allows students to construct their own knowledge through projects and explorations without sacrificing the need to build requisite skills. We meet children where they are; we know where they need to be; and we honor multiple ways of getting there. We are looking for education students who are working towards a teaching degree or graduate degree in education to work with classroom teachers and students.

Interns would be asked to assist students with work completion, assist teachers with photocopying and other paperwork, and assist administration with various school duties.

Education (4th year, graduate level)

Ellis Center  Location: Atlanta

Our year-round academic program is modeled on providing individualized curriculum and one-on-one support such as a communication facilitator or intervener for each student. Our team of passionate multi-disciplinary professionals including teachers, therapists, and national experts collaborate on each student’s goals creating a holistic approach that is unmatched in our region. Our goal is to provide a well-tailored Instructional Program customized for each student enrolled in our school, as well as a one-on-one support; believing unconditionally in each student’s potential through a child-lead curriculum. http://www.elliscenter.org/

Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Speech Language Pathologist

Evergreen Investments  Location: Atlanta

A real estate investment management company involved in the residential to small apartment (10 units or less). We advise owners on the market opportunities available to them and provide detail research to make investment decisions. Working with our marketing department initiatives, you will collect local data to explain the market activities that are impacting ownership and the economic indicators that are adjusting the trends. Examine a local employment and purchase trend. And develop an article/potential case study that highlights market shifts and potential forecast indicators. Develop PR releases for new products or services for our company. Develop relationships with industry news sites. Compare similar service providers and market demands with our service offerings for public release notifications.

Journalism, Advertising & Public Relations Majors (2nd, 3rd and 4th year, graduate level)

Fischer Homes  Location: Atlanta area, in person

Fischer Homes is one of the largest and most reputable home builders in the Midwestern and Southeastern states. Founded in 1980, the company has grown to building over 30,000 homes and employs over 500 Associates. Fischer Homes’ solid reputation has been built largely by the talent of our Associates as we have been recognized as the 30th largest builder in the United States. Within the Fischer Homes organization, we value diversity and see each Associate as a team member and valuable asset. We select highly competent individuals to join our team, provide them the resources, training, and development possible for them to make significant contributions, and drive their own success while determining their career paths. The rewards for their efforts are advanced career opportunities with commensurate compensation packages and ultimately, the continued growth and stability of both Associates and Fischer Homes. Fischer Homes holds the highest ethical standards of business. We are honest and straightforward and will stand by our word. Our actions demonstrate respect, courtesy and above all, fairness. We would be interested in showing interns two facets of our business, the professional selling side and the field management side. Professional Selling interns would be working alongside a
Sales Counselor or Elite Coach in one of our beautifully decorated model homes observing customer appointments, prospecting, potential realtor events, etc.

Engineering students will be spending time with our Field Managers supervising the production of several residential homes, meeting with trade partners, customers, current homeowners and divisional management.
